SAY HELLO TO W.A. Johnson

W.A. JOHNSON, RESIDENT

When W.A. Johnson made the decision to move to Renaissance North Tampa, she had been dealing with worsening arthritis and several falls. She injured herself and needed hospitalization and rehabilitation — then she and her children felt it was the safest and best option for her to move to a maintenance-free apartment at Renaissance.

Ms. Johnson felt instantly welcomed at the community as she began getting to know her neighbors and taking part in activities. “It’s a very people-friendly place! At first, I felt like I was in a commercial because everyone was saying hello and being so nice. But it’s really the way it is here.”

Ms. Johnson’s background as a retired credit manager for two international retailers and an associate pastor for more than 30 years has led her to leadership roles within the community. She serves as president of the Resident Council, leads Bible study and keeps busy with other activities.

She looks forward to mealtimes at Renaissance because it feels like a true family. “When anyone’s been gone for a few days, everyone asks where you’ve been and is so happy to see you. Just like members of a family, we miss each other when we’re gone.”

In the evening, Ms. Johnson can be found embracing the fun and fellowship of resident-led Game Night. “Seven days a week, we meet to learn and play all different games. Even if people don’t want to play games, they come to watch and spend time with each other.”
