SAY HELLO TO Karol

KAROL TAYLOR, RESIDENT

Born and raised in Tampa, Karol Taylor began to consider a change in living arrangements once she was retired from working and no longer getting out as much. She knew it was time to downsize from her two-bedroom condo, while also realizing she would benefit from the helpful services and socialization opportunities provided at Renaissance North Tampa.

“Most of the people at my condo were still working and it was getting pretty lonely. I just fell in love with Renaissance. It’s almost like being back in a dorm setting because it’s very social.”

The dining experience at Renaissance was an important part of Karol’s decision-making process. She admits to never being much of a cook, so she especially appreciates the elegant dining room and wonderful meals made with care by the culinary team. “One of our cooks makes delicious chocolate chip cookies and delivers them to us fresh out of the oven at lunch.”

She’s found that this caring approach is shared across all the departments at the community. “The whole staff just really seems to care about the residents and will do anything they can to help out.”
